Dear Mr. McCone:

It gives me great pleasure, as Chairman of the Federal Woman's Award Board of Trustees, to send you information on the third annual Federal Woman's Award. The announcement inviting nominations and giving details for their submission is enclosed.

We believe that the success of the program in its first two years can be attributed largely to the great interest and enthusiasm evidenced by officials who have found in this award program a splendid opportunity to pay special tribute to exemplary career women.

Previous winners of this award have demonstrated their high ability and dedication to the Federal service. We are confident that this year's nominations will again show that there are many exceptionally talented women serving their government in challenging roles.

The Board joins me in looking forward to your agency's participation in this worthwhile program through nomination of your most outstanding career women.

Sincerely yours,
